

SMALL ENTITY ECONOMIC IMPACT

NORTH DAKOTA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE
AMENDING OF N.D. ADMIN CODE CHAPTER 72-02.01-1.1 AND 72-02.2-01

COMBATIVE SPORTS – BOXING & MIXED FIGHTING STYLES

1. Which small entities are subject to the proposed rule? Individual contestants in boxing and mixed fighting style events, promoters of these events, and officials involved with the regulation of the events.
2. What are the administrative and other costs required for compliance with the proposed rule? Fees to regulate events are authorized in N.D.C.C. § 53-01-07(2)(3) and in the amended rules. A special fund with a continuing appropriation is authorized by N.D.C.C. § 53-01-09.
3. What is the probable cost and benefit to private persons and consumers who are affected by the proposed rule? The annual costs for licensing of contests, promoters, and some other support roles are not increasing. Promoters may see a slight increase in additional costs by requirements to provide a greater number of combatant gloves or safety supplies to meet proposed requirements. Individual contestants may be requested to provide greater medical information or testing for safety concerns as needed, which could have costs associated.
4. What is the probable effect of the proposed rule on state revenues? There should be no impact to state revenue. The program currently is operating at a deficit.
5. Is there any less intrusive or less costly alternative methods of achieving the purpose of the proposed rule? No, this is the least intrusive and cost affective timing for implementation of this proposed rule and assist in addressing administrative process and combative sport rule changesp.
