The 4-year term of office begins on December 1 following the election. However, the term of office for governor and lieutenant governor begins on December 15 following the election.

The 6-year term of office for Public Service Commissioners begins on December 1 following the election.

RUNNING IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

Candidates may choose one of two methods for placing their names on the ballot:

- A. Petition/Certificate of Nomination: Candidates must file a Petition/Certificate of Nomination with the Office of the Secretary of State containing signatures equal to 3% of the total votes cast for the candidates for the same office and carrying the same political party affiliation at the last general election. However, no more than 300 signatures are required. If the office sought did not have a candidate with the same political party affiliation in the preceding general election, at least 300 signatures are required.
NDCC § 16.1-11-06
 - B. Certificate of Endorsement: Candidates endorsed by established political parties must file a Certificate of Endorsement with the Secretary of State. NDCC § 16.1-11-06
- Candidates are required to file their Statement of Interests in the Statement of Interests system.
 - Candidates are encouraged to upload their remaining candidacy paperwork into the Statement of Interests system with their Statement of Interests filing. Candidates may still submit a hard copy of the additional candidacy paperwork by the deadline if that is their preference.
